They were trampled upon by the children and women following them, who seemed utterly without reason or presence of mind. An alarm of fire was sent in and the noise of the approaching engines, with the ringing of balls,

At Korsakowski's drug store, 680 Noble street, several physicians were kept busy attending the injured children. Among the injured there was a boy named Staniskas Kaminska of 714 Poly avenue, who was injured internally by a fall from the stone steps. The extent of his injuries could not be ascertained.

The fire was quickly extinguished, only a small damage being done. It will not exceed $100. A patrol wagon from the Rawson police station arrived and the police, with the help of the fire department, began to restore order. At first they met with very little success. It seemed as if everybody within a mile around was at the place, and the crowds were so dense that a passage could only be made with the greatest of efforts. After half an hour's work the police succeeded in taking the worst of the injured children to the ad-

WHAT O'BRIEN AND DILLON SAY ABOUT THEIR FLIGHT.

FORLORN HOPE OF THE TORY PARTY.

The Irish Police Are Still Searching Fruitlessly at Queenstown.

AWFUL BUTCHERY IN A BERLIN SUBURB.

A Socialist Orator at Halle Drops Dead. The Talk of European Capitals Cabled from London.

Paris, Oct. 17,-Messrs. William O'Brien and John Dillon, who sucecceded in erading the Irish police last week with the intention of proceeding to America to lay the cause of Ireland before the people of that country, and who arrived at Cherbourg Wednesday, reached this city yesterday.

In an interview Mr. Dillon said that after the yacht on which he and Mr. O'Brien made their escaped had been out two days the supply of Illuminatng oil ran out, and in consequence it was impossible to light the yacht's lights. This made it dangerous sailing in such a crowded waterway as the Channel, and several times they nar-rowly escaped being run down by pass-ng steamers, some of which came perilously near the yacht. Mr. O'Brien's sole object in refusing to face his accusers to the end in Tip-perary was to keep his engagement to speak in aid of the Irish cause in America. He was confident that the mission to that country would meet with success. The Nationalist party were in perfect accord, and Ireland had implicit confidence in Mr. Parnell. The death of Mr. Gladstone or the lankruptcy of the National League were the sole hopes of the Torics in their fight against the Parliamentary agustion for Irish home rule.

Messrs, Dillon and O'Brien will re-main in Paris for eight days, when they will proceed to Havre, where they will take passage for New York.

La France says that Mesera. Dillon and O Brien state that after they have fit is hed their mission in the United States they will go back to Ireland and surrender themselves. The paper says they were both exhausted by their voy-ge across the Channel, Mr. Dillon said he had nothing to conceal regarding the motives for the flight of himself and his colleague from Ireland. "It is our wish," he said, "to submit the condition of Ireland and appeal on behalf of their unhappy brethren to the seven or eight millions the landlords and to assist the unhappy tenants who are perishing from hunger and build houses for the evicted familics. The government wanted to deorive the sufferers of these rese and therefore we did not hesitate to

Mr. Dillon recalled the results of similar actions brought by the Govern-ment against other Irish members of Parliament and journalisis, and salir that the only resource left for himself and O'Brien was flight.

They expect to embark on the steamer La Bretagne on the 25th fast. They will remain in America four months and will then return to England and surrender themselves to the police. Mr. Diffen buighingly concluded: "We have been prisoners so often that a few months more or less can not frighten us. In addition to this the Independent Republicans will put in 1,000 more, all ardent, sincere workers. We expect to poil at least 90,000 Democratic votes in the city, and I should not be surprised to see it reach a round 100,000. I have every confidence in the people, and I think we will carry the State beyond the shadow of a doubt."
